SAPHC
We Party with a Purpose!

Notes from President "Cooler Dave" Spenny

Well it looks like Summer is here with all the heat. Hope everyone is doing well and coming out of the quarantine without being any crazier than normal. We're starting to plan some events and are looking for a good outside/inside venue for our Happy Hours (HH) since the Mine Shaft is not open yet. Stay tuned as we're still trying to pull off our June 18 HH. Here is what we have going on:

- 4 June, Ancira Music Series at the County Line starts up again every Thursday night
- 13 June, SAPHC Workday at the SA Food Bank
- 20 June, SAPHC Highway Cleanup
- 26/27 June, we have 40 SAPHC pholks headed to Port A, working to have Billy Snipes play for us at the Island Hotel pool Saturday night
- 3 July, Brent Burns House Concert at Connie Turners Lakeside Lanai in New Braunfels
- 4 July, Donnie Brewer House Concert at Fred n' Sara's Isla Bella
- 14/15 July, we expect Escape to Margaritaville to be postponed/canceled, stay tuned
- 16 July Happy Hour, location TBD, Jim Hoehn is scheduled to play for us

Make Sure You Keep Your Membership Up To Date

Hey, it's only $20 a year for all this fun.

I know, I know 20 Bucks is 20 Bucks

Just get the crowbar out for your wallet and pay up.

SAPHC Membership

Hello fellow Parrot Heads

Diane Elliott here. I am your Membership Director (I know, not as exciting as your cruise director, but I'm trying my best). I need your help. I know we are all are missing our monthly happy hours and hope that we can start getting back together soon. Please check your badges to make sure you are current with your dues. I also have quite a few badges for those that have renewed and have not received your new badge. If your badge shows that your membership has expired and you have renewed, please check with me at the next function and I will give you your new badge. Life's a Beach can't possibly be a Survive theme. If you have not renewed, you can renew by credit card online at <https://www.saphc.org/membership>, (please complete membership form) or print out a membership form on the following page and mail it with a check to: SAPHC, 4427 Haymarket, San Antonio, TX 78217. I will also be attending many of the functions that are going on (Food Bank work day, Highway clean up, concerts, etc.) so if you have any questions please stop by and see me. You can also e-mail me your questions at diane.elliott825@yahoo.com.

Please keep your membership up-to-date. Club dues are used to cover the operating costs of the club. We use the money collected from dues for paying for special entertainment opportunities for the club, maintaining our web site, printing and any other miscellaneous operating costs throughout the year. I think it is a pretty good bargain for $20.00 a year.

Looking forward to seeing you soon!!

Diane

SAPHC Food Bank Day

SAPHC volunteered at the SA Food Bank on Saturday!!! There were 24 Parroheads who sorted potatoes, (uggg), and made lunches for kids.

SAPHC made a $2000 donation to the SA Food Bank!!

SAPHC Highway Clean Up

Just trying to get back into whatever "normal" is these days. The next SAPHC Adopt-A-Highway quarterly highway cleanup is scheduled for Saturday, 20 June.

We'll meet at 9:30 AM at Eisenhower Park on N.W.. Military Highway, off of HWY 1604W, don our orange vests, masks, gloves, tinfoil hats, etc. and team up to get to work, "picking up with a purpose." Sometimes we go Just South of Corpus in 2011 The more members we have working, the sooner we finish. Just show up and join in, it's amazing how much phun you can have gathering trash!

Brent Burns at Lakeside Lanai

Come hear Phlockers Magazine Trop Rocker of the Month for June 2020 – Brent Burns.

Brent, famous for his contributions to “Trop Rock” music and the Parrotheads over the past several decades, and his recent Masked Musician tour, will be playing on Friday, July 3, from 7 – 9:30 p.m. at Lakeside Lanai, 600 Lakeside Pass, New Braunfels, TX. www.brentburns.com

Please bring:

- ⇒ $20 suggested donation for musician
- ⇒ Your chair
- ⇒ Your own beverages
- ⇒ Your own munchies

Gates open at 6:15 for socializing and giving your donations for Brent.

Optional donation to New Braunfels Food Bank (cash or non-perishables)

As we ease back into house concerts, on July 3, there will not be a ‘food sharing’, social distancing will be encouraged, and fist-bumps welcomed. We will provide water and coffee and fantastic music. Safe partying on this special holiday weekend will be encouraged.

RSVP On Lakeside Lanai FB page is appreciated!!!!

Thoughts On Giving Back

THE CALENDAR

You do not need a battery
No electronics in this one
It requires daily attention
And yet it gets the job done
But the best thing about this calendar
Is when you go to make the change
It gives you time to remember
Those from whom it came

This calendar was a gift from the orphanages in Mexico who care for abandoned children -some who are challenged mentally and physically. Every Christmas for the last 10 years we would buy clothes and toys for these needy children. Every time I change the date I say a prayer for the children and their caretakers. I also thank God for the generosity of the many people, who without their support this wouldn't happen! Most are Parrot Heads! Thank you!

JR Troy

History of SAPHC Survive

Survive started in 2001 when a small group of SAPHC members got together for a weekend of fun on the coast at Port Aransas. “Survive” is one of Jimmy Buffett’s songs with some very appropriate lyrics for this year:

“Survive, stay alive
Through the thick and the thin
Survive, stay alive
Until it all ends

Survive, stay alive
When will it all end
Survive, stay alive
Till I see you again”

In 2002 the club started going to South Padre Island and it became a more organized event. They stayed at the Surf Motel, played on the beach, went on a dolphin watch cruise and had music and danced at a place called Parrot Eyes. 2004 was the last year that they went to South Padre.

In 2005 the club decided to go Port Aransas where Survive has continued to be held at different locations. In 2006 they went to the Holiday Inn Sun Spree on North Padre Island. Then they tried a different type of place – the Island Retreat Condominiums for the License to Chill 2007. Then in 2008 they started going to the Mariner Inn where they were welcomed warmly.

Over the years the hotel changed ownership and management and it was re-named the Island Hotel. Survive activities have included a cookout, dolphin watch cruises, beach games, the “Blenders on the Beach” drink making contest, bonfires on the beach, music and dancing, bloody mary brunches, and a whole lot of fun.

Survive was just a party for club members and not a big charity fund raiser event in the beginning. If any money was made because registrations exceeded expenses, that money was used to pay for a band for the club Anniversary Party. When the club continued to grow and our Survive attendance maxed out the venue capacity, we took the additional funds over expenses and donated it to a charity.

History of SAPHC Survive

Cindy Muir (long time club member and writer for TropRockin.com) wrote an article about the event for the online magazine in 2015.

<https://www.troprockin.com/trop-rock/san-antonio-parrot-head-club-survive/>

After Hurricane Harvey hit in 2017 we were not sure that we could go back to the island for the summer event in 2018. But the board and members decided if things were put together enough on the island to go there, we should go and help them out. We started a “Poker Run” “Pub Crawl” to get people to go spend money at some of the local businesses and charged them to play poker hands. The winners got small cash prizes and the rest of the proceeds were donated to the Amos Rehabilitation Keep (ARK), a wild life rescue organization.

In 2019 our event was featured in the June “Phlockers Magazine”. If you can’t read the article posted below either go to <http://phlockersmagazine.com/magazine/062019/> or go see Dr. Scott Sitterle and have your eyes checked.

In 2020 we were planning the Survive event and getting ready to start taking registration in March when the world changed with the COVID-19 virus. With the lockdown, business closures and social distancing the event was cancelled. But with things now opening up, some members are planning to go to Port A anyway – just to go have fun, be with each other, and help the local businesses out. It is not an organized club event, but will be much like the very first weekend on the beach in 2001, we just have to get “Back to the Island”!

Sally and Dave Spenny and Mango Mani

San Antonio Parrot Head Club
SURVIVE 2019
“Beach People Like Beach Music”
By Sally and “Cooler Dave” Spenny

Well the San Antonio Parrot Head Club (SAPHC) Survived another annual SURVIVE during May 17-18 in Port Aransas, TX. SURVIVE is our club’s annual trek to the Texas Coast for a Phun weekend. This year was our 12th year at the same Parrot Head friendly hotel, the Island Hotel.

SURVIVE is a phun/social event for our PHC members. We don’t have raffles, silent auctions, booze basket, etc. as we want the attendees to relax and enjoy the Coast. It is an opportunity to get to know fellow club members away from the monthly Happy Hour meetings!

One of the things we came up with to raise some money for charity a few years back is toenail painting. Our lovely ladies paint toenails for $10 and the proceeds go to the SAPHC Alzheimer’s Walk team. It’s sort of funny as a lot of the guys donate $10 to not have their nails done! Our local Alzheimer’s Association thinks it is a unique way to raise money for our walk team!

Also last year we started doing a Poker Run on Saturday afternoon going to five local businesses in Port Aransas. It was our way of helping businesses after the devastation from Hurricane Harvey. We charge $10 per poker hand and all the proceeds go back to the local Amos Rehabilitation Keep (or ARK) whose mission is to rescue and rehabilitate sick and injured birds, sea turtles, terrestrial turtles, and tortoises found along the South Texas coast and to return them to their native habitat. In fact, we were lucky to be at the coast when they released seventeen sea turtles back to the wild on Saturday around 5pm.

The hotel lets us set up around the pool with pop up shades and our sound system. On Friday night we had Jim Dugan, a long time Club friend from Corpus Christi, play for us while the Club provided pizza. Saturday morning started off with the Cindy Duo, Cindy Shoffstall and Cindy Muir, playing for us while we had breakfast tacos, Bloody Mary’s and mimosas by the pool. Saturday afternoon was the Poker Run and Saturday night we were pleased to welcome back Jerry Diaz and Hanna’s Reef for a great evening of entertainment—we think Jerry was pleased with our theme this year!!

Oh, I hope my toenails are as pretty as yours!!

Hey there Mister Wilson....

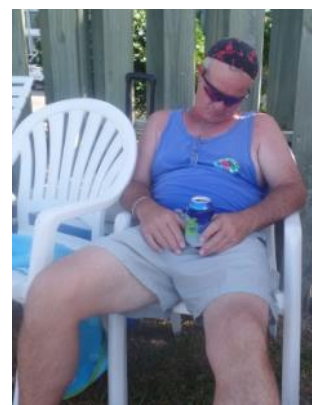

Not even gonna go there.

And then SHE said....

Oh you guys... I wuz doin that back in Bama when I was knee high to a grass hopper

Resting up for the next round.

Windy Cindy's Blog (Of Parrot Head Tails)

So 2020 continues to be a year we could never have imagined. But when you have limes, make margaritas. Parrot Heads changed (or they should)the saying & they are soooo good at making margaritas!

Just about all trips & events have been cancelled but local things are opening up some. It was so great to gather with Parrot Head friends at the Food Bank on Saturday sorting potatoes. We were all so happy to be together that the smell of rotten potatoes & the squirting of potato juice on our shirts didn't dampen our spirits. Kinda like Beach People Like Beach Music back in '19. We just laughed & knew our reward was a beer just waiting for us in the parking lot.

The first Friday that things started opening up I went to Singing Waters in Comfort to hang with the Arnolds. I had no idea the emotion that would come over me during that first outing. It was an open air venue & I was telling people, "I have been let out of jail." I actually had tears in my eyes when I was able to reunite with my friends. Hopefully I will never take any of you, my friends, for granted.

I have also had 3 tailgate dinners with fellow Parrot Heads. We meet in a parking lot near several restaurants & we each order our meal of choice. We drink adult beverages, social distance in our lawn chairs, listen to Trop Rock & laugh for hours. So far we haven't been run off!

Continue to be safe, stay healthy & wash your hands!

Phins Up!
Cindy
