President's Letter to the Phlock/1

Happy Fall Ya'll!!

Kicked off September at the TRMA nominated small event of the year CLPHC P4 event September 4-7th on the beautiful Guadalupe River. This has turned out to be a huge music festival with Trop Rock musicians from all over the US. Phabulous food, raffles, silent auction, live auction, poker run, duck races and so much more. I am honored to be a part of this phabulous event and if you have not been able to attend...please add it to you bucket list!!

September 14th we all headed to Lakeside Lanai for a phabulous HC with Cliff Cody all the way from Key West, Florida. I had the pleasure of meeting him and hearing his music in Key West Labor day weekend! Check out his music when you get a chance! All the money raised was donated to the Hill Country Flood Relief. That's how we Party with a Purpose!!

September 18th was our monthly Happy Hour at Wetmore Beach House! If you didn't get a chance to come hang out with us, you missed some phabulous music by Beth Travers. She did a great job entertaining us with some of our favorite tunes! Thank you very much for all the generous donations for Alzheimers...this will go toward our walk team for November! We can't do this without all of you! Congratulations to all the winners!!

At the end of September (September 25-28) the Girls from San Antonio headed down to Port A for the annual Wings Over Port A event hosted by the Port A Parrot Head Club. Every year during this event SAPHC presents a check to the ARK for money raised at our annual Survive event in May. This year we presented a $1500.00 check to them. Again, thanks to all of your generous donations we can make this happen and they really appreciate it!

President's Letter to the Phlock/2

On October 4th we all headed to Isla Bella for the annual birthday celebration for Jonas Lorence and Sara Guerrero. SAPHC presented Sara with metal art with the Isla Bella logo to commemorate all the house concerts we enjoyed so very much over the years with her, Fred and our wonderful parrot head phamily!!

NEXT HH WILL BE OCTOBER 16TH W/MUSIC BY BILLY SNIPES! SO MARK YOUR CALENDAR!!

And then the Girls from San Antonio will be heading to Gulf Shores, AL October 22nd for the annual MOTM event!! Let's Keep the Party Going!!

Watch your emails with all the great upcoming events!! Please keep your membership current and tell your phriends about us! We are looking for ways to boost membership! Please check out our calendar as there are a lot of great events in 2025!!

Lake Side Lanai House Concert with Cliff Cody

Thank you, SAPHC! Thank you!

Lakeside Lanai is grateful to our San Antonio club plus our many neighboring clubs and friends who were able to attend the September 14 house concert with Cliff Cody. Because of the generous individuals who attended and those who participated in the charity raffle, he was able to collect over $2400 for the Community Foundation for the Texas Hill Country.

We appreciate Radio Trop Rock for their live broadcast, the many individuals who loaned us popups, the people who showed up early to help with shade, the great food that appeared in the dining room, those who brought items for the raffle, the many out-of-state visitors, SAPHC for helping us with the Doodie Calls buildings, and everyone who sat in the heat to hear the tunes. It was a memorable afternoon!

The next house concert is Sunday, November 2, with *Sunny Jim!!!

Find this event on Facebook. Doors at 1:00 – Music at 2:30 p.m.

WINDY CINDY'S OCTOBER BLOG/1

Most of September I spent in Turkey, Egypt and Jordan with Rocky, Debby and Gary Arnold and Susan and Willie Dickson. The trip did not disappoint. We started out in Istanbul, Turkey which fun fact, is located on 2 continents, Europe and Asia. And yes, we went to both continents. We went into a couple of mosques, the Grand Bazaar market which takes up many city blocks and the spice market. We encountered the coast guard on the Bosphorus Strait boat ride. Apparently, we got into "Off limit" waters. We were too close to the President of Turkey's home. He was in residence. The Coast Guard surrounded our boat with BIG guns and escorted us to shore where our tour abruptly ended.

We spent 11 days in Egypt where we saw tombs and pyramids, rode camels, and learned hieroglyphics. 7 of the days in Egypt we were on a river boat sailing up and down the Nile River. After every excursion we had to go through a couple of blocks worth of open-air kiosks of Egyptians selling dresses, scarves, tablecloths, souvenirs, etc. We called it "running the gauntlet."

Egyptians are crazy aggressive in selling their wares. And don't EVER let them know your name. Once they do, they shout your name, run after you and then let other vendors know your name and then they run after you. I think they even call their friends at the next excursion site and tell them you are coming and let them know your name. I know firsthand! Like the song I wrote says, my smile has gotten me in a few scrapes, but I have always managed to escape!

WINDY CINDY'S OCTOBER BLOG/2

After Egypt we were off to Jordan where we floated in the Dead Sea. You can't swim! All you can do is float! Along the countryside you would see sheep herders with their sheep trotting behind them. We went to more archeological sites too and one of them was Petra! So beautiful! Petra was where the filming of the Indiana Jones' movie "The Last Crusade" took place. The famous scene is where Indiana Jones finds The Treasury. We found The Treasury too!

We flew home on my Birthday. We left the hotel lobby at midnight so not only did I have a 32-hour birthday because of the time zones; I was awake most of the 32 hours. Usually when I get home from a trip, I want Mexican food. This time I wanted bacon and sausage. All 3 countries are predominantly Muslim, 90% or more, so I don't think they even allow pigs in their countries. We feasted on chicken sausages and beef bacon- yuck! As soon as I landed in Frankfurt on our way home, I headed straight to a sausage stand. Also, I do not want any hummus for a few months.

Until November, bubbles up!
