President's Letter to the Phlock

SAPHC,

Well April was a tough month losing both Van Hammack and Quicny Goss within in a week of each other. They will be missed, Fair Winds Following Seas Van and Quincy.

May looks to be a Phun month with SURVIVE in Port A and a great Happy Hour on 20 May where we'll start the raffle on a lovely Adirondack Chair painted by Kathy Tauber--Thanks Kathy.

Keep watching those emails as we have some great House Concerts coming up as well as other Clubs registering for their events.

April Happy Hour

There's trouble brewing there.

Just us - smiles all around

More pretty smiles

Four really cool dudes

Someone forgot who he was so he had to wear his name tag.

Who's the long haired guy? Must be incognito.

Front Desk Groupies

Ain't they sweet

Big ole hats

Just enjoying being able to get together again.

Look what I won!!

Always cool.

April Happy Hour was one for the books. We were entertained by the Bongo Katz, a loud lively rockin band. Entertainment from Manny and Scott Sitterle was included. Several enjoyed cutting a rug on the dance floor. At least 25 packages of socks were collected to donate to Soldiers Angels. Very proud of our fellow Parrot Heads for their generosity. On a rather down side, we toasted a very dear friend to many – Van Hammack. He will be missed. Karen Prevou was the lucky Raffle winner and Elaine and Don Graves won the banner. Congratulations!!! May Happy Hour will be May 20th.

Next Happy Hour—May 20th

Happy Hour at Bracken Store and Ice House

Come join us for great phriendship, music and phun. An outdoor venue to help social distancing. They only have wine and beer and will provide setups if you want to bring your own liquor. Also the food truck will be there with some great food available.

We're collecting Box Fans for Project Cool this month.

We are raffling off a great Painted Adirondack Chair painted by Kathy Tauber--thanks Kathy. We'll run this raffle for the May and June Happy Hours with the winner being drawn on our June 17th Happy Hour. $5 per tic or 5 for $20. Proceeds go to the San Antonio Food Bank.

Not Kathy's chair —————→
Hers is WAY Cooler then this one

We'll have something similar to a 50/50 raffle. 50% to winner, 50% back to the Club. $5ea/5 for $20.

We'll have our SAPHC 2020 Fiesta Medals on sale for $5 each-- $10 value!!

Be sure to stop at the sign in table and help out, it's a great way to meet your phellow phlockers! Check in with Diane to be sure your membership is current!

We're collecting toiletries for Soldiers Angels. We'll be taking these at any Happy Hour so start your collection now. NOTE: We're no longer collecting pop tabs, Ronald McDonald house is not taking them anymore!!

Always collecting
Travel Size Toiletries for Soldier's Angels

SAPHC Highway Cleanup

The next SAPHC Adopt-A-Highway quarterly highway cleanup is scheduled for a Saturday, sometime in the future

We'll meet at 9:30 AM at Eisenhower Park on N.W.. Military Highway, off of HWY 1604W, don our orange vests, masks, gloves, tinfoil hats, etc. and team up to get to work, "picking up with a purpose."

The more members we have work, the sooner we finish. Just show up and join in, it's amazing how much pun you can have gathering trash!

Some day in the future
@ 9:30

Brent Burns @ Isla Bella

Brent Burns made his return to Isla Bella on April 17. Reminiscing on stage it sounded like Brent has been in Floresville 12 times! I really enjoy Brent as he is quick to banter and has a great sense of humor and conversation. Brent is in his first annual final tour! Wink, Wink, Nod, Nod! I'm looking forward to his second annual final tour! He came through with some of the old favorites and sang a couple that were new to me. It was a brisk day which made for excellent conversation and beverages. By the end of the first set, Brent had a heater on his six and we had a nice oak fire on ours. The Isla Bella crew, both parrot heads and friends, came up with excellent food to keep our body heat up while Brent sang many favorite songs that he said he had not sung since the beginning of this damn pandemic. I can't say enough about the role that Fred and Sara play in keeping the house concert tradition alive. A big hug and a hearty "thank you!". Another successful house concert!

Kelly McGuire @ Lakeside Lanai

The rains cleared; the sun came out on Sunday, May 2, just in time for Lakeside Lanai's House Concert with Kelly McGuire. About 45 people enjoyed the tunes and tales of Kelly's songs about boating, islands, and life.

Radio Trop Rock (RTR) also made this event special with their live broadcast. A raffle (RTR banner, Beach Budda Coffee, Siesta Key rum, and Yuengling) plus canned goods collection yielded 2928 pounds of food for the New Braunfels Food Bank for our club.

Special thanks to Kelly McGuire, Eric and Gina Babin, SAPHC, and all of the fans for making this event successful!!!

Pardi Gras 2021

LAISSEZ LES BON TEMPS ROULER!

The good times rolled into Galveston, TX April 8 -11. While, there's no place quite like New Orleans, Pardi Gras in Galveston was a heck of a lot of fun! It was four days of great music, exceptional company and lots of adult libations. It had most of the traditional elements you come to expect from Pardi Gras. There was wonderful entertainment which included old favorites and new faces, a pub crawl, a poker run, royalty, morning shots and a street party on the beach. Most of the venues were within a block of the host hotel, Tremont House so getting around was easy and the weather was beautiful. None of that cold stuff this year!

Thursday started off at Flip Flops Beach Bar and Grill with music by Ben Reyna. Then it was off to Stuttgarden Tavern to the roof top bar for Bert Hebert and Steve Hopper. By the way, the Shrimp Kisses and Fish tacos are excellent there. After taking time out for registration, it was on to the Playground Patio Bar for Ricky Lamb. Then on to Horny Toads for some Mike Nash.

Next, it was time for our own Dave and Sally Spenny to relinquish their crowns, as the longest reigning King and Queen of Pardi Gras, to this year's royalty. Pege Wright from the Galveston was selected as Pardi Gras Queen 2021. She has done a lot for the Parrot Heads and they wanted to really honor her for all her years of hard work. It was decided to forgo having a King this year and let her reign solo. Keeping with New Orleans tradition, the final act for the night was Late As Usual.

Friday started off with a Bloody Mary Morning at the Playground. You also couldn't beat the carafes of Mimosa's. Kelly Brown was first up followed by Robert Greaney from the local area. Dennis Davis took the stage next and provided some great music. Then it was off to get dressed for the pub crawl.

Next it was back to Stuttgarden Tavern Roof Top bar for some of our favorites, Jim Hoehn followed by Thom Shepherd. Did I say they have excellent Shrimp Kisses and fish tacos?

Many thanks to Susan Dickson for the article and Willie for the photos!!

Pardi Gras 2021

Next came the Pub Crawl up and down The Strand. All of the bawdy pirates got a few odd looks, but fun was had by all. I don't think they are quite as used to seeing everyone in costume in Galveston. One really fun moment was when a little boy walking on the other side of street spotted us. He had on a pirate hat and was carrying a pirate flag. He got so excited seeing all of the pirates! We invited him over to get a picture with all of us. I think we definitely made his day. I know it made ours! The traditional Monty Tolar pirate toast followed the pub crawl.

The evening's entertainment back at Horny Toads started with Donny Brewer. The girls from Drop Dead Dangerous rounded out the night.

Saturday started with a repeat of the Bloody Mary Morning at the Playground. This time entertainment was provided by Mark Mireles followed by Bob Durand.

Then it was time to Uber to Flip Flops Beach Bar for a beach party. With our toes in the sand and drinks in our hands, we listened to a really great band called Bama Breeze. After a live auction to raise money for our charities, Jerry Diaz and Hanna's Reef rocked the stage.

Next, it was back to Stuttgarden Tavern for Sam Rainwater and the Jonas Lawrence Band. (Are you getting tired yet? We were!). After that it was back to Horny Toads for The Detentions and the Master Gator's All Star Jam. Our own Mango Mani was called up on stage to play with the band.

Sunday, it was time to check out of the hotel and head to T-Bone Tom's. Kelly McGuire kicked things off. He was followed by the Pirates and Poets Songwriters Show with Brent Burns, Dennis McCaughey, and Jason Caraway. After they finished, Pardi Gras was officially over and it was time for the Wind Down party with the Jonas Lawrence Band.

It was great to see old friends and make a few new ones. While it was different than New Orleans, I think everyone really enjoyed the event. There was even mention of the possibility of adding a similar event in Galveston next April, in addition to Pardi Gras in NOLA. More good times ahead!

Sail on Van and Quincy

Wow! It is already May! This year is moving fast. Maybe it is because we are finally able to do things!

It has been a sad last few weeks, losing Van Hammack & Quincy Goss. Those 2 guys were without a doubt guys that God broke the mold after He created them. They each had "their" own personality. I can't think of anyone else known by everyone in the club except Dave & Sally Spenny.

Van & Quincy were both the promoters of "shots." Van became famous for his "morning" shots. I am sure from now on every time Parrot Heads take morning shots they will be to Van. He will forever be in our memory.

Quincy was known for his "anytime" shot. He always had a "special" bottle of something at the food bank or whatever Parrot Head event he was attending. He gladly shared but you had to give him back the plastic shot glass. I remember one food bank workday he took shots to the employees of the food bank. They didn't know what to think & neither did the Parrot Heads. Hilarious!

Van loved the song "Country Roads." Anytime I played it he would stand behind me & sing with great pride. I will miss his presence at Survive singing "Country Roads" but I know his spirit will be there singing & now in perfect pitch.

With Van & Quincy forever in our memories, don't miss a chance to hug your family, have a drink with your friends or seize the moment!

Phins Up!
Cindy

Brudda Van doing what he did best.

Sail On Brudda Van

Van Hammack

November 19, 1954-April 14, 2021

By James Hill

Van is at home now in his beloved Philippi, West Virginia. He loved the Mountain State and its people. As a matter of fact, Van's final post on Facebook was a video of John Denver's recording of "Take Me Home, Country Roads."

He also loved the Parrot Heads and was very proud of the organization. Van was definitely an active member as he attended the happy hours, house concerts, trips to Port Aransas, and worked on many volunteer projects.

Our mutual friend, Becky and I, attended a tailgate prior to the UTSA/Army football game in September 2019. Van and Doc Blanchard organized the event and arrived at the Alamodome at 9:30 a.m. Van made about 20 phone calls to the UTSA Ticket Office, acquired parking passes, and reached out to "Tailgate Manny" so save parking slots near the Parrot Heads.

Van later said, "This was a dedicated party event which allowed the members to mix, chat, joke, and have pure phun!"

However, Van took his volunteerism seriously. The Air Force veteran volunteered in the community for many organizations, including the Wounded Warriors Project. He also volunteered for the Valero Texas Open, UTSA football, the San Antonio Sports Hall of Fame Gala, the NCAA Final Fours, and the San Antonio Food Bank, just to name a few.

Van graduated from West Virginia University in 1978 and was commissioned a second lieutenant in the Air Force. He served for 17 years and took an early retirement in 1995, attaining the rank of major.

He was a navigator on board the work horse C-130 Hercules aircraft and was stationed in California, Arkansas, Hawaii, Japan, and Kuwait during the 1991 campaign of Desert Storm. He also was a navigator instructor at Maxwell Air Force Base, Alabama.

Van was a member of the 774th Tactical Airlift Squadron, nicknamed "The Green Weasels." I believe they had an actual weasel as a mascot! Van organized regular reunions with this distinguished group of service members.

Along the way in the Air Force, Van coached soccer, flickerball, and volleyball at Maxwell Air Force Base. He also was a football defensive backs and receivers coach at Radford School in Hawaii. During retirement, Van was the defensive line coach at Trinity University, where Becky and I met him, from 1996-1997.

Sail On Brudda Van

Van found time to attend West Virginia Mountaineers football and basketball games, in Morgantown and on the road.

On a personal note, I remember my pre-birthday trip to Las Vegas, to the Spoetzl Brewery in Shiner with a crew from the Bombay Bicycle Club, and my post-birthday celebration at the Beethoven Halle in San Antonio. There were many get-togethers over the years, including attendance at the River Parade and a trip to the Zach Theatre in Austin. Van and Becky attended the NCAA Women's Final Four in April just a week before he left this earth.

Van, all I can say is, thank you for being my friend! Until we meet again, watch over us!

Sail On Quincy

The man we all knew and loved as "Quincy" was actually named John David Goss. He was tagged "Quincy" in college at Stephen F. Austin University and it stuck with him. (He did seem more of a Quincy than a John David.)

The phrase Parrotheads identify with is "Party with a Purpose". That fit Quincy perfectly. Anytime there was a SA Parrothead event you could count on him being there. He especially enjoyed volunteering for the San Antonio Food Bank. He made the perfect Elf at Elf Louise and was first in line for the Highway Cleanup Saturday morning stroll. And always at the end of these events he would open the trunk of his car and share his "full bar" with all.

The Parrothead events Quincy attended are too numerous to name. Everything from the local Happy Hours to Meeting of the Minds. The one he probably enjoyed the most was Parti Gras, (he attended the 2021 Parti Gras in Galveston.)

If you ever spent any time with Quincy, you knew he loved his chickens. He was an extremely proficient gardener. According to him it was because his chickens ate all the bugs in the garden.

Quincy loved playing disc golf and all forms of cooking. He was good at any type of card game, but was really known for his poker abilities. Numerous times he would show his hand and with his Cheshire Cat grin say, "Read em and weep boys."

Here's to a fine Texas Gentleman in every sense of the term.

Fair Winds and Following Seas Buddy

Kathy's Recipes

Gypsies in the Palace Overnight Fruit Salad

Spring has sprung and Summer can't be too far behind! Parrot Heads will enjoy this salad with springtime BBQ. Used as a side dish or as a dessert there will be no leftovers!

Ingredients

3 large eggs beaten
1/4 cup sugar
1/4 cup white vinegar
2 tablespoons butter
2 cups green grapes
2 cups miniature marshmallows
1 can (20 oz) pineapple chunks drained
1 can (15oz) mandarin oranges drained
2 medium firm bananas sliced
2 cups heavy whipping cream whipped
1/2 cup chopped pecans

Directions

1. In a double boiler over medium heat, cook and stir eggs, sugar and vinegar until mixture is thickened and reaches 160 degrees. Remove from the heat, stir in butter. Cool.
  2. In a large serving bowl, combine grapes, marshmallows, pineapple, oranges, and bananas. add cooked dressing and stir to coat.
- Refrigerate for 4 hours or overnight. Just before serving fold in whipped cream and pecans.

Enjoy!
