SAPHC - We Party with a Purpose!

February Happy Hour
Next Happy Hour is
Thursday, March 16th, 2023
Bracken Store and Ice House 18415 Bracken Dr,

President's Letter to the Phlock

Well SAPHC our annual Phlocking to the coast, SURVIVE, is right around the corner. Hopefully over 100 of us will be in Port A from 19-20 May at the Island Hotel Partying with a Purpose.

We have a great music line up this year starting out on Friday afternoon, we are pleased to welcome back a phan favorite Billy Snipes who will play at the pool from 5-7 PM during event registration and as we relax and enjoy some pizza. Saturday evening around 7PM we'll have phun with one of our favorite bands, The Jonas Lorence Band. On Friday some of our lovely volunteers will offer toe nail painting by the pool. Cost is $10 and the proceeds will also go to the Alzheimer's Association.

On Saturday morning we'll have Cindy Shoffstall playing for us around the pool. You can pre order two breakfast tacos for $10 which also includes Bloody Mary's and Mimosas.

Continued.....

After our morning relaxation we'll have an area set up on the Beach and have a few Beach Games for you competitive types. After the Beach Games we have a Poker Run, $10/card, set up so you can join in and bar hop or just stay and hang out at the Beach. We'll get together for a SAPHC Group photo op around 6:30PM followed by the Jonas Lorence Band around the pool at 7-10PM.

On Sunday morning we'll meet and cleanup around to pool, pack up and see if we can get rid of the libations we don't want to take home.

Registration is $70 for adults, $25 for keets age 12 to 16 yrs old, under 12 free. Registration for adults who are members of an accredited PHIP Parrot Head Club includes a SURVIVE T-shirt.

*Hope y'all can join us for a PHUN time in Port A!!

Windy Cindy's March, 2023 Blog

Last month was February and that means one thing. Let's Rodeo San Antonio! We have many Parrot Heads that are on rodeo committees and volunteer their time for the kids in our surrounding areas. If you go to the rodeo grounds you will most likely run into a Parrot Head. On the first Saturday of the Stock Show I hooked up with a group of Parrot Heads. Needless to say, some shenanigans happened. I thought it would be a good idea to get on a mechanical bull. The reason I thought it would be OK was because the bull was nonfunctioning. I.E it was broken! Lori Parker just shimmied on up on that bull so I thought I could too. Not! I proceeded to fall right off. Thank goodness it was surrounded by bouncy stuff. But Lori and I were having none of that failure. Lori came to my aid and I got on top of that bull. Success! Lori stuck right by my side. After that ordeal I looked around and it was then that I realized I had been entertaining a crowd of people. They were laughing and giving me a thumbs up! No words! "Friends are the family you choose." Jess C. Scott

Kathy's Recipes

Creamy Coconut Lime Salmon

This fish tastes like a Tropical Vacation! The sauce is almost too good! Trust us, you are going to love this!

Ingredients

- 2 tbsp coconut oil divided
- 4 (6 oz) skinless salmon fillets, patted dry
- 1 tsp kosher salt divided
- 1/2 small onion, minced
- 2 cloves garlic, minced
- 1 1/2 piece ginger, grated
- 1 13.66oz can Thai Kitchen coconut milk
- 1 tbsp fresh lime juice plus lime wedges for serving
- chopped fresh basil
- 1 Fresno chili seeded and chopped.

1. In a large cast iron skillet heat 1 tablespoon oil . Season the salmon with 1/2 teaspoon salt. When oil is hot but not smoking, add salmon skin side up. Let sit undisturbed until golden and salmon releases from the pan.(4minutes). Use a thin spatula to flip fish.
2. Reduce heat to medium add remaining oil to the skillet, Cook until softened. Add garlic and ginger, stir a minute.. Stir in coconut milk and simmer. Cook until done. Garnish with chili and lime wedges.

Enjoy!
