WINDY CINDY'S FEBRUARY 2025 BLOG

Happy Valentine's!

I was disappointed not to attend Pardi Gras in January but Rocky and I needed to visit our oldest daughter in Atlanta.

Probably most of you don't think of Atlanta as a vacation destination but it is full of fun things to do. This time we went to Stone Mountain Park which has a carving on the side of the mountain of Jefferson Davis, Robert E. Lee and Stonewall Jackson. Quite impressive! You can climb up Stone Mountain, a 1-mile climb. It isn't too steep except in one part and in that part there are hand railings.

Atlanta also has the Beltline which I have walked along every time I have gone to Atlanta. It is a 12-foot-wide sidewalk that goes for miles around Atlanta. All along the path are bars, restaurants and shops. Beware of the strollers, skateboarders, cyclists and roller skaters.

The Coca Cola Museum is quite fascinating and the Atlanta Aquarium is one of the best I have ever seen. Atlanta is also home to the Jimmy Carter Museum. Atlanta has a gorgeous botanical garden that is especially beautiful at Christmas time. Depending on the time of year you can catch a Braves game in their relatively new stadium. It is awesome. It has a complex all around the stadium filled with bars and restaurants.

During football season you can watch the Falcons and probably catch a college football game. They hosted the SEC championship and in January they hosted the college football championship. But a MUST see is the Atlanta icon Clermont Lounge. This lounge is where old strippers go to die. And yes, I have been there. I witnessed 70-year-old women dancing around poles, taking off their clothes and providing lap dances. Unbelievable! "It's never too late to be what you might have been." George Elliott

Marisela's and Luis' Drink of the Month

Blueberry Pineapple Tequila Sour

Ingredients:

- 2 oz tequila (silver or reposado)
- 1 oz freshly squeezed lime juice
- 1 oz pineapple juice
- 3/4 oz simple syrup (adjust to taste)
- A handful of fresh blueberries
- Ice cubes
- Pineapple wedge or lime wheel for garnish

Preparation:

Creating this cocktail is simple and straightforward, making it an ideal choice for both beginner and experienced mixologists.

Step 1: Muddle the Blueberries

In a cocktail shaker, add a handful of fresh blueberries. Using a muddler or the back of a spoon, gently crush the blueberries to release their juices. The muddled blueberries will give the drink a beautiful purple hue and add a tart, fruity depth.

Step 2: Add the Liquids

To the shaker, add the tequila, freshly squeezed lime juice, pineapple juice, and simple syrup. The lime juice provides a bright, tangy kick, while the pineapple juice brings a tropical sweetness that complements the tartness of the blueberries.

Step 3: Shake with Ice

Fill the shaker with ice, secure the lid, and shake vigorously for about 15-20 seconds. The ice will chill the cocktail while also slightly diluting it, ensuring a smooth, well-balanced drink.

Step 4: Strain and Serve

Strain the mixture into a rocks glass filled with fresh ice. If you prefer a smoother drink, use a fine mesh strainer to catch any bits of blueberry pulp.

Step 5: Garnish

For a finishing touch, garnish your cocktail with a few fresh blueberries and a wedge of pineapple or lime wheel. This adds a pop of color and gives the drink a tropical, inviting appearance.

"Take it all in... it's as big as it seems. Count all your blessings. Remember your dreams."
