SO HAPPY IT IS OCTOBER!
HAPPY FALL YA'LL!

September started off with a trip to Myrtle Beach, SC. (Labor Day Weekend). The trip started out with a slight delay, but when I finally made it, I had a fabulous time. Hung out with John McDonald and Donna and with some old and new phriends! It wasn't Key West but a beautiful place to visit!

The following weekend a bunch of us headed to The Rio Guadalupe Resort for the TRMA nominated Small Event of the Year…..P4! We had a lot of Fabulous Trop Rock and local musicians play for us and the weather was beautiful but VERY HOT!! Lots of phun times, fabulous music, duck races, food and lots of money raised for local charities. That's how we Keep the Party Going!

SEPTEMER HH was September 17th at Wetmore Beach House! We all dressed up in our Pirate attire and had a special group of Pirates, "The Shanty Droppers" sing some pirate/sea shanties for us……ARGGHH! These young men entertain at our Texas Ren-Fest's and really enjoy what they do! It was such a pleasure meeting them and hope they will be back soon! Everyone had a great time!

Thanks to everyone that donated to our charity!
Congratulations to all the winners! Let's Keep the Party Going Ya'll!!

President's Letter to the Phlock/2

September 25th a few of us headed down south to my favorite Funky Little Beach Town, Port Aransas, Texas for their annual fundraising event "Wings over Port A". We had a lot of phun Pub Crawling at some of our favorite places and hanging out with phriends raising money for local charities! Partying with a Purpose and Keeping the Party Going!!

On a VERY SAD NOTE! We ended September with the passing of Rick Carroll and Willie Dickson! And started October with the passing of Scott McBrearty! Three of the best men I had the privilege and pleasure of knowing! They will all be missed! Rest in Paradise my phriends!

WINDY CINDY'S OCTOBER BLOG/1

Wow! Just wow! This past couple of months has been reeling for the Parrot Head Club of SA. In August, a former member and good friend of Art Martinez Terry Rabon, left us at the age of 52. We also lost Pat Switzer in August. She was an icon in the SAPHC world, known for her love of gambling and having fun partying with the SAPHC girls. Then in September we lost a former member, Richard Carroll, very suddenly. We ended September by losing the ultimate Jolly Mon, Willie Dickson. October is continuing the trend. I just got word that Scott McBrearty, the Saltwater Cowboy himself, passed after a lengthy illness.

Willie and Scott were my dear, dear friends. Rocky and I traveled to many places with these two guys and their wives. In September of 2022, 14 Parrot Heads, including Scott and Willie, ventured to Ireland. On this trip I realized the love that Scott and Willie had for Jameson. We kept looking for Scott's ancestors and Willie looked the Irish part in his newspaper hat. October 2023, Scott and Katie, Willie and Susan, and Rocky and I went on the Danube Waltz with Viking. Scott had always wanted to do a river cruise and the Dickson's and Rocky and me were veterans, so we showed them the ropes. Scott and Willie looked right at home in the beer gardens as they lifted their pints

WINDY CINDY'S OCTOBER BLOG/2

In the summer of 2024, a group of us went to the Jerry Diaz and Hanna's Reef holiday in Belize. Of course, these 2 were no strangers to beach life. I could author a book about all the laughs that occurred on these trips. Maybe I will write a song! Scott was our Food Bank representative and even being as sick as he was, he went to our last work day on Labor Day Saturday. Willie was a Food Bank faithful and was always the box builder.

"In losing a friend we lose a part of ourselves, and the best part." Alexander Pope

Please keep the families of all these dear friends and their families in your hearts. And do not miss a chance to tell your friends and family that you love them.
