I had the opportunity to participate in the Barefoot Mardi Gras Parade with our Padre Island Parrot head folks in Corpus Christi, Texas. This is an annual one-of-a-kind celebration that brings the vibrant spirit and tradition of Mardi Gras to the beach! This parade consists of elaborately decorated floats, creative themed golf-carts and costumed revelers “barefoot” embracing the “laid back beachy vibe” of the island community. The parade route starts at White-cap beach and ends around Bob Hall Pier. The parade winds along the shore offering beautiful views of the ocean for the on-lookers, parade walkers, and spectators.

Marisela's and Luis' Drink of the Month

Pineapple Margaritas

Ingredients:

2 ounces pineapple puree (from ¼ fresh pineapple)
2 ounces white tequila
1 ounce Triple Sec
1 ounce fresh lime juice
1 teaspoon sea salt
1 teaspoon sugar
½ teaspoon cayenne

Instructions :

Cut off the top and bottom of a pineapple and then cut it into 4 equal pieces. Use one piece then save the rest for another use. Slice off the peel and the hard inner core, chop the pineapple, and then put it into your blender. Blend on high until smooth. (Note: if you don't have a high-powered blender, you may want to strain the puree so there are no hard bits in it.)

Mix the Sweet and Spicy Salt ingredients together in a small dish. Run a cut lime around the rim of a glass then dip the rim into the salt. Fill the glass with ice. Put a handful of ice into a cocktail mixer or glass jar, add 2 ounces of the pineapple puree, the tequila, triple sec, and lime juice and stir until cold.

Strain the pineapple margarita into the glass and garnish with a slice of pineapple.
